We believe this policy should be a working document that is fit for purpose, represents the school ethos, enables consistency and quality across the school and is related to the following legislation:

- Equality Act 2010

The following documentation is also related to this policy:

- Equality Act 2010: Advice for Schools (DfE)
- Race Disparity Audit - Summary Findings from the Ethnicity Facts and Figures Website (Cabinet Office)

We have a legal duty under current race, disability and gender legislation to undertake equality impact assessments on all our policies and practices in order to assess their impact on members of the school community such as pupils, parents/carers, school staff, governors, school volunteers, visitors and those from the wider school community. We have a particular duty to assess whether our policies and practices have, or could have, an adverse impact on the attainment levels of pupils from different equality groups.

We want everyone in our school community to be treated fairly and by undertaking EIAs we will establish whether members of the school community are being disadvantaged in any way by the implications of a policy or practice. EIAs involve predicting and assessing the implications of a policy or practice and trying to anticipate the needs of possible future members to our school community.

We understand that all present policies and practices, those being reviewed and planned must be equality impact assessed. Before undertaking a full equality impact assessment, a preliminary equality impact assessment will be administered. This will be undertaken by the person responsible for the policy or practice. If the policy or procedure is found to have a positive impact on one or more of the equality groups it will be endorsed by the senior leadership team and governing body before implementation. Any policy or practice that has a negative or adverse impact which could amount to unlawful discrimination will be changed.

We will identify and prioritise those policies and procedures that need to be equality impact assessed first and then to devise a three year review programme for all policies and procedures.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. Therefore, an equality impact assessment has been undertaken and we believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.

Shalom Noam Primary School

We all have a responsibility to ensure equality permeates into all aspects of school life and that everyone is treated equally irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation. We want everyone connected with this school to feel safe, secure, valued and of equal worth.

We acknowledge the findings of the Race Disparity Audit that clearly shows how people of different ethnicities are treated across the public services of health, education, employment and the criminal justice system.

The educational section of the audit that covers: differences by region; attainment and economic disadvantage; exclusions and abuse; and destinations, has a significant importance for the strategic planning of this school.
